SEA FRONT PROMENADE

A luxurious apartment with wonderful sea views.....

This luxurious apartment is fitted out with every conceivable fixture and fitting of the highest quality. It has wonderful sea views from both bedrooms, lounge and balcony which has a table and chairs for al fresco dining. Views over to the Atlantic Ocean and to the Desertas Islands cover the sun rise. Caniço de Baixo is set along the coast road between Reis Maigos and Garajão where a promenade stretches along the shore line for ease of strolling. There is a very active diving school where the dives cover the protected underwater gardens where the beauty is outstanding. There are also rock pools for swimming and even a small sandy beach which is protected for safe swimming for the young and old.

Palheira golf course is just a short drive away where the beauty of its position is as enjoyable as the game on this international course where we can offer 20% discount to our clients. Also try the 19th hole for a meal, snack or just a celebratory drink.

Local Information

The weekly charge is for 2 people, please add €50 per person per week thereafter.

Canico is just 10 minutes drive from the capital of Funchal where most of the cultural activities are held.

There is a regular bus service that also takes you too and from Canico, which is a friendly corner of the map with a full shopping centre. There is also an English pub, high class restaurants as well as snack venues including International Italian restaurants for pizza and pasta and one of the best Chinese restaurants on the Island.

There is a tenpin bowling alley to supply you with fun for all the family and buses take you to the nearby Aqua park (10 minutes) for the young and old to have a day of excitement on the slides and flutes, and rapids around the more gentile water play games for the younger.
