This view is just part of what this character property has to offer...

This character property is a walkers paradise with fabulous sea views.

Casa do Por do Sol is the most delightful country stone house restored to the highest standards offering all the comforts of home and a distinct feeling of well being.

It is situated in a hamlet on the South West of the island called Faja da Ovelha just minutes from a Miradouro, beauty spot, which looks down to the fishing village of Paul de Mar and the beautiful coastline.

The area is one of stunning unspoilt countryside with amazing panoramic views.

A little path leads to the house which has a lawn and BBQ terrace for sun bathing and al fresco dining.

The lounge which opens out onto the garden has simply oodles of character, including exposed local stone walls (see picture). A wooden staircase leads to the first floor where you will find two double bedrooms with sea views.

This is a truly amazing property which is a perfect base form which to explore the island.
